

IPNA Bylaws

Executive Summary of Revisions

1. Article, Sections, and Sub-sections have been rearranged in order to make the information in the Bylaws more cohesive and accessible.
2. "Resident" has been redefined as any person 18 years of age or older whose primary residence is within the Inman Park boundary lines; or who owns real property therein; or who has previously owned property within the boundary lines for a period of ten years and currently maintains a temporary residence therein. "Resident" was previously defined as a person who resides or owns real property within the boundaries as well as a corporation, organization, institution or agency that owns property or has a place of business or profession within the Inman Park boundary lines. Article 3 Section A 2 a.
3. The term "member" has been clarified to refer only to resident members.
4. The Nominating Committee members have been allocated two-year terms and will remain active year-round in order to recruit Board and Committee members as needed. Article 5 Section C.
5. All Committee Chairs' terms have been redefined to stipulate that they serve at the pleasure of the Board. Article 5 Section E 2 and Article 6 Section B 1.
6. The office of President Elect has been added. Article 5 Section N 1-5.
7. The role of the Advocator has been redefined throughout the Bylaws as one possible platform among others for allowing IPNA to convey information. The IPNA website has been identified as the official communications portal for IPNA.
8. The role of immediate neighbors has been expanded to include input from all immediate neighbors along with guidance from the Planning and Zoning Committees when making decisions regarding complex cases requiring variances or re-zoning. Article 4 Section C, Article 6 Section A 2, and Article 6 Section A 3.
9. The Treasurer will provide quarterly financial updates. Article 5 Section L 6.